Comments from the Audience

Mark Jones, 2604 Ashurst Road, inquired into the status of the house at 2603 Ashurst Road. Law Director Kenneth J. Fisher responded that the large judgment lien on the property has been satisfied. He added there is still $6,600 owed in back taxes, which he is negotiating to get paid. He noted that there is a desire on the part of Councilman Sims to see the house rehabilitated instead of demolished, which is being addressed by Building Commissioner David Menn. Mr. Fisher noted that there should be some movement on the matter by the next Council meeting of May 18, 2009.

Mr. Jones inquired if the determination to demolish the house or rehabilitate it will be made by the Building Department or if the decision will be made by an outside source. Mayor Rothschild replied that the City Engineer will also assist in determining if the dwelling is structurally sound. Mr. Jones stated that the neighbors would prefer a properly maintained home and not an empty lot in the neighborhood. Mr. Fisher noted that the Building Commissioner has been in contact with non-profit housing organizations which may be interested in rehabilitating the home if it is structurally sound. Councilman Sims pointed out that he would not want an empty lot in the neighborhood either. Also, he would prefer that the property remain a viable tax generating property for the City of University Heights.

Carolyn Solis, 2595 Ashurst Road, mentioned that a former housing inspector told her many years ago that the house was not worth rehabilitating. She mentioned that Mrs. Harbort, the owner of the house in question, is now living in the Cleveland area. The rumor that the City was going to raze the house and use the property as a parking lot was cleared up as false. Mrs. Solis stated that she would rather see a garden on the lot than a dilapidated structure.

Kate Uhler, 2448 Fenwick Road, commented that the Council has spent upwards of $41,000 on studies in order to save the City money, such as $5,000 for the Charter Review Commission (CRC), $25,000 for an efficiency study, $10,000 for a rubbish study, a needs study, etc. She added that there may also be an additional costs for regionalization. Ms. Uhler noted that the expenditures do not seem like a practical way to save money.
Nathaniel and Sarah Wilder, 3706 Meadowbrook Blvd., presented written comments, which Dr. Wilder read. The Wilders requested that the Council delay placing the proposed amendments to the University Heights Charter on the ballot until 2010 or 2011. They pointed out that the delay would provide ample opportunity to schedule open forums for the Council to educate the public on how the proposed changes would benefit the City and the residents. Prior to the forums, they suggested that written documentation be presented to the residents showing evidence to verify the reasons for the proposed changes and the rationale behind proposing an elected part-time Mayor and a Council appointed City Administrator. They further suggested that the cost of the proposed changes also be submitted. They encouraged everyone to pull together in a spirit of cooperation and respect.

Dr. Wilder inquired as to what action would be necessary in order to enact the recommendation to delay placing the Charter amendments on the ballot. Mr. Fisher explained that the Council would have to change the ordinance which established the Charter Review Commission in setting forth the duties and responsibility of the CRC.

Susan Infeld, 3906 Tyndall Road, expressed sincere appreciation on behalf of herself and her neighbors to the Police and Fire personnel who responded to the house fire on Tyndall Road. She noted that the residents saw professionalism and were comforted by both the police officers and firefighters on the scene. The first responders were given a round of applause. Councilman Bernardo added that firefighters performed an act of personal bravery when two (2) firemen hosed down the stairwell while two (2) other firemen went upstairs to rescue Mr. and Mrs. Myers. He stated that the men should be commended.

Linda Johnson, 2604 Ashurst Road, asked for clarification on what will take place in two weeks with regard to the Harbourt property at 2603 Ashurst Road. Mr. Fisher replied that at the next Council meeting the ordinance authorizing a quit-claim deed to the property will go back on the Council’s agenda for second reading if all matters have been cleared up and the Mayor and Council are in agreement on moving forward. Ms. Johnson also asked that if the deed is accepted will a determination be made at the same time with respect to demolition or rehabilitating the property. Mr. Fisher stated that if the deed is accepted, the City should know what it intends to do with the property. Ms. Johnson pointed out that the neighbors who signed the petition want the house demolished. Mr. Fisher explained that before any house is razed a procedure must be followed. Mayor Rothschild stated that everything may not be settled by the next meeting on May 18, 2009 because the City has to gain access to the inside of the house to determine the structural condition. Mayor Rothschild also favored demolition.

Mrs. Solis mentioned that there have been contractors at the house who indicated they were examining the house in order to submit bids to the City for the purpose of rehabing the outside of the house. Mr. Fisher stated that Council has not authorized any work at the house. Building Commissioner David Menn stated that he made some inquiries, but he has not given the address to anyone. He added that one non-profit organization he spoke with had no interest. Mayor Rothschild stated that if there are people lurking around the property, the police should be called. Ms. Solis mentioned that she had the name and phone number of a man who was interested in setting up a non-profit organization and rehabilitate the house, but he ran into problems with the deed. She will forward that information to the Mayor.

Reports and Communications from the Mayor and the taking of action:

Mayor Rothschild yielded the floor to Fire Chief John Pitchler to report on the house fire at 3897 Tyndall Road. Fire Chief John Pitchler reported that the initial fire call came in at 6:27 a.m. and it took 4 minutes and 45 seconds to get to the scene. The dispatch center dropped a second alarm which automatically brings Cleveland Heights with an engine company, South Euclid with a ladder company, Shaker Heights with an engine company, Beachwood with a squad and Lyndhurst. Chief Pitchler stated that all their initial efforts were focused on rescuing the two (2) residents trapped inside the house. The first University Heights crew went in to protect the stairwell and tried to extinguish the fire on the first floor while the other men went to the second floor to rescue the residents.
